

SWING ARM CITY

ATV/OHV Motorized Recreation Area

LOCATION

This open recreation area is located south of Factory Butte and west of Caineville.

TRAIL TYPE

This recreation area is for OHV and ATV's only.

DIFFICULTY

Easy-Extreme. This area is so diverse that you can find any type of difficulty.

TRAIL DESCRIPTION

This is a recreation area designated for people of all ages. Its surface is bennonite clay. There is dispersed camping in the area and some restroom facilities. This area is good for everyone from the beginner to the most advanced of riders.

EQUIPMENT

Any ATV or OHV Vehicle. Also be sure to wear a helmet.

ENVIRONMENT

Be aware of the weather as it can change quickly and

SAFETY

Be aware of other riders. There are many hills and obscured areas that could cause collisions.

TAKE IN THE VIEWS.

Although you may not be going to Swing Arm City for the views, the area is beautiful. The majestic Henry Mountains hover over the recreation area, providing the perfect back drop for any action photo.

GET A CLOSER LOOK.

You will find yourself getting up close and personal with the areas terrain and landscape. Swing Arm City's terrain is made of bennonite clay, which makes for the perfect riding surface.

Trail tip: There areas where you are not allowed to take motorized vehicles. Be aware of these areas that are marked and do not ride in them.

If you have any further questions, please contact us at:

1-435-425-3365
info@capitolreef.travel

www.capitolreef.org

DO IT AT YOUR OWN PAGE.

Swing Arm City is the perfect place for family members of all ages. No matter how you like to ride, this recreation area will be fun for everyone.

